* * A very fine example of Whistler's excessively rare, early drypoint portraits : almost unknown to the sale-rooms, so seldom is there an opportunity for their acquisition. The late owner was a personal friend of the artist and thus secured the Elinor Leyland, The Piano and the two previous lots.

* * Kennedy says that—" on an impression in Mr. Benedict's Collection 'Miss Tinnie Greaves' is in Whistler's writing, apparently." Wedmore speaks of—" this rare and expressive drypoint."
